

Record of Arrests and Prosecutions (RAP) Sheet Training (Conviction and Non-Conviction)

The Washington State Patrol is offering training on how to read the Transcript of Record (RAP sheet). This training offers detailed information on each section of the RAP sheet and how to locate specific information. The information presented will assist the reader in making decisions based on an individual's criminal record. This class is free of charge!

Agenda:

- ♦ How to read the State and FBI transcript of record
- ♦ How to locate information contained in the State RAP sheet. FBI information
- ♦ How to understand information contained in the State and FBI transcript of record

Date: April 16, 2013
Time: 1:00 pm—4:30 pm
Address: Criminal Justice Training Commission
19010 1st Ave S., Room #C101
Burien, WA 98148

~ Early registration is recommended as class size is limited ~

To register for this class or obtain further information, please e-mail: crdtraining@wsp.wa.gov

Elaine Hale (360) 534-2180

Check out the website:

http://www.wsp.wa.gov/_secured/ident/resource.htm